His love for travel is well known amongst his friends and family, and he always discussed his dream of becoming a sommelier.

DETAILS

Liam Biran left the United States on April 8, 2019, to visit family in Israel, then to visit Italy's wine country, then to visit France. He was traveling alone. Liam was scheduled to take a flight from Paris, France, back to the United States on May 16, 2019, but he was not present on that flight. His last known activity was on May 9, 2019, when a credit card he was known to use was used to purchase a train ticket from Turin, Italy, to the Aosta Valley, Italy. During his travels, Liam stayed in multiple hostels and became friendly with other travelers his age staying at those hostels. Liam's personal belongings were located in a remote location of the Aosta Valley, but he has not been seen nor heard from since May of 2019.
